Philosophy

Paths grow out of going them - Franz Kafka.

Defending one's rights, coming to the right decisions, going unconventional ways. This requires courage and the right partners.

We see ourselves as a holistic legal general practice and have sound knowledge in various areas of law. The regular visit of multidisciplinary events is vital to keep pace with the development of the law. Our focus is in the care of individuals and SMEs. We place great value to client proximity. Client satisfaction is both our guiding principle and our goal.

The firm is deliberately kept small and personal. This provides us with the flexibility to work straightforwardly, individually and in a solution-oriented way. If necessary, a well-developed network is available for specialized knowledge.

We stand by your side - for all your legal needs!
